The members of Four N Affair come from around the world and were fortunate to meet in Calgary through the joy of Barbershop singing. They are all members of the international Barbershop Harmony Society and Calgary's Western Hospitality Singers.

With over 60 years of Barbershop singing experience between them, each of the quartet members brings his personal talents and skills to create a great sound. The individual voices of Four N Affair blend to create chords and overtones that individually they could not achieve.

Four N Affair has a broad range of experience providing family oriented entertainment. From the big stage entertaining for large groups to singing for that special someone on a special occasion, Four N Affair will provide the "icing on the cake" for your event.
